Apple Media Services:
Schoolwork Handouts for Student

May 2024

File name Handouts.json

File description Contains data related to the user's Schoolwork Handouts, including data about the handout, attachments related to the handout, the completion status of those attachments, and the recipients of the handout (handouts are the method by which instructors can provide a message to students and enable them to track student progress).

Why Apple keeps this information Apple retains this information to display Handouts in Schoolwork, log the state of an attachment for a particular student, provide a means through which teachers can share information or homework with students, and to log the Handout's assignee.
